Up Close

Mike serves as a Vice President of Pile Wealth Management and a Director in the Tax Department of our affiliated accounting firm, RJ Pile, LLC. Before joining RJ Pile in 2005, Mike practiced law for 12 years in a mid-sized Indianapolis law firm focusing on estate and tax planning, wealth management, and general business law. Mike's background in tax and estate planning brings an added dimension of analysis and service to Pile Wealth Management clients.

As with all the Pile Wealth Management advisors, Mike provides independent advice based on what the client needs. First and foremost, Mike listens to his clients. He gathers what they want to accomplish and then helps them through the planning and decision making process. Mike develops plans to accomplish those goals in a manner that is both tax efficient and consistent with his clients' other planning strategies (e.g. retirement, business succession, family legacy, etc.).

Mike is a published legal author and makes regular presentations on various topics including estate planning, succession planning, identify theft and tax matters.
